

White Cap Appoints Christine Reddy as General Counsel

ATLANTA, Aug. 25, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- White Cap, the leading distributor of specialty construction supplies and safety products for professional contractors, today announced that it has appointed Christine Reddy as its new General Counsel.

In this role, Christine will be responsible for the delivery of all legal services for the company and serve as Corporate Secretary and legal advisor to our board of directors. Christine will report directly to Alan Sollenberger, Chief Executive Officer.

"Christine has an accomplished career providing trusted partnership and insights that support and enable growing organizations," said Alan Sollenberger, Chief Executive Officer. "Christine has spent her career building strong governance and compliance programs, supporting transparent and inclusive cultures, and serving with a business- and service-first mindset. We are pleased to add her counsel and expertise to the White Cap leadership team, and look forward to her impact leading legal services at White Cap."

Christine most recently served as Executive Vice President (EVP) and General Counsel for publicly traded Beacon Building Products for the past four years. While there, she executed upon their multi-year strategic vision, which included driving growth through acquisition, and aligning Beacon's legal services to business goals and objectives.

Prior to her role as EVP and General Counsel at Beacon, Christine served for 15 years as Vice President, Deputy Corporate Secretary and Deputy General Counsel for the secondary mortgage market leader, Fannie Mae. Earlier in her career, she held ascending leadership positions at Public Broadcasting Service, reaching the role of Corporate Secretary and Deputy General Counsel. Christine brings more than 30 years of experience with transformative transactions, governance and leading legal teams to White Cap.
