During the annual golf tournament, vendors, customers, and White Cap associates golfed and participated in a silent auction and raffles that raised funds contributed to Shepherd's Men's mission of supporting veterans and their families. With the success of the event, White Cap raised $28,500!

Justin Defibaugh, U.S. Army 3^d Division Special Forces and recent SHARE graduate spoke to the group about the SHARE program and how it saved his life and that of hundreds of others who have been through the program since its inception. Travis Ellis, co-founder of Shepherd's Men also spoke to the group about the mission of SHARE and Shepherd's Men and what this tournament has meant to the program and the clients over the years.

"White Cap is proud to support such an impactful organization and it's amazing to see our associates, customers, vendors and volunteers all come together for such a great cause," stated Mason Howell, White Cap Melbourne Branch Manager.

After seven years of hosting this event, White Cap has raised over $127,000 for Shepherd's Men!

Thank you to those that participated in the event and a special thank you to the representatives of Shepherd's Men and SHARE for sharing their stories on how these organizations have saved their lives.
