

Greg LaVerghetta

Vice President of Corporate Development and Real Estate, White Cap

Greg LaVerghetta is Vice President of Corporate Development and Real Estate for White Cap.

Greg first joined HD Supply in 2009 and served as the HD Supply Corporate Development leader beginning in 2016 before transitioning to his current role with White Cap.

In his current role, Greg works closely with White Cap senior leadership and field teams to develop and execute M&A and greenfield growth strategies, while also overseeing White Cap's real estate group.

Prior to joining HD Supply, Greg gained career experience in both investment banking and civil engineering industries, which today helps Greg drive White Cap's success as an industry M&A leader.

Greg holds a Master's degree in Engineering from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign and MBA from Emory University – Goizueta Business School.
